The facts of the case elicited at the examination were as follows: Moolubi, who was employed by again is a few days for the American Guano Company's Isi- Mr. Culten in cultivating rice, had been at work in the fields during Friday, and upon returning home in the afternoon, found his wife, Luika, with her two children, one a girl aged about seven years and the other a boy aged about four years, at the bouse of a foreigner named Samuel Jacobs, the woman being at the time under the influence of intoxicating drink, supposed to be beer, which she had procured at Jacob's bouse. It also appears that Moolubi himself emained for sometime at Jacob's house, partaking in the meantime of some refreshments; but whether he partook of the intoxicating drink of which his wife had already imbibed too freely, is not certale. At least, they started home from Jacob's house between seven and night o'clock from which time we must take the evidence produced in the Police Court to explain what transpired. The first that was seen of the woman, Lulka, and her husband after leaving Jacob's is thus given by a witness, native, who was returning from Hopolulu and passed near their place on the evening of Friday, about 9 o'clock, and saw Mooluhi and the woto-day at the Auction Room. Parties wishing Billiard Table with the " Delaney's Wire Cushion" are cautioned against certain agents who are trying to infringe or JACOB STRAHLE & CO.

San Francisco, May 20th, 1871. Mussus, Jacon Strange & Co., Billiard Manufacturers, 563 Market Street, San Francisco, California, GENTLEMEN: I am hawpy to declare to all amateurs of Billiards that, after my long experience in the principal cities of the world, I feel convinced of the superiority of the Billiard Tables manfactured by Jacob Strable & Co.

I also find the "Delaney Patent Wire Cushion" very superior for its clasticity, dorability, truth, and correctness to anything now in use; in short, the whole has my most unqualified approval. (Signed) A. P. BUDOLPHE,
